

GAO Jin

Lawyer

city:
Beijing

phone:
010-8287 0288

e-mail:
gaojin@baclaw.cn

Professional expertise

Elimination of legal risks in the investment field, handling financial commercial disputes, prevention and control of civil and commercial legal risks

Personal Profile

Ms. GAO Jin has engaged in legal and investment businesses for years. With the background of working at a large securities company, Ms. GAO has rich experience and resources in the industry, and is good at handling complicated affairs in investment and legal composite businesses.

As a permanent legal advisor to many trust companies and private investment companies, Ms. GAO assisted enterprises in handling investment affairs and corporate legal affairs, mainly including financial commercial disputes and civil and commercial legal risks such as disputes in fixed-income businesses, disputes in assets management, disputes in trust businesses, disputes in liabilities for misstatements in the securities industry, and disputes over equity interests. She represented large-sized financial institutions in various litigation cases, and won recognition of many clients in solving financial disputes for her professionalism and impact.

Representative performance

1. In the dispute over debts of a listed environment protection company in the amount of tens of billions, commissioned by an institutional creditor to recover the full principal, interests, and penalty of over RMB 30 million in total through litigation, making the client the only non-guaranteed creditor that fully recovered its creditor's rights and achieved returns among many creditors.
2. On the background of default on bonds issued by a listed company, commissioned by an institutional creditor and combined litigation with negotiation to formulate a plan of negotiation for settlement and assets disposal during litigation, and promoted the implementation of such plan to help the client recover its creditor's right in the amount of nearly 200 million.
3. Commissioned multiple times by creditors of bonds and assets management products to realize their creditor's rights and eliminate risks; and reported creditor' s rights in bankruptcy on behalf of clients to maximize the interests of clients.

4. Successfully recommended 7 companies that were successfully listed on the New Third Board from 2014 to 2016.

5. Participated in the acquisition projects and equity incentive projects of several listed companies, and accumulated abundant non-litigation experience.