

JIA Xichun

Lawyer

city:
Beijing

phone:
010-8287 0288

e-mail:
jiaxichun@baclaw.cn

Professional expertise

Civil and commercial litigation and arbitration, collection of non-performing assets of commercial banks, retrieval of difficult cases

Personal Profile

Education: Hebei University of Economics and Business Bachelor of Law

Renmin University of China Master in Economic Law

People's Mediator, People's Mediation Commission for Public Complaints of Beijing Municipal Public Complaints Office

Deputy Secretary-General, Committee for Civil-Military Integration Practice

Arbitrator, Tangshan Arbitration Commission

2020-2021 Outstanding Party Worker of Beijing

2020-2021 Outstanding Lawyer of Haidian District

After engaging in civil and commercial litigation for over 10 years, Ms. JIA covers investment and financing of state-owned enterprises, central enterprises, and public institutions, non-performing assets of commercial banks, solution of commercial disputes, etc. She can provide guidance prevention and control suggestions concerning the legal risks of clients' non-litigation affairs.

During her career, she handled many arbitration, litigation, and execution cases, which were highly praised by clients. Having provided legal services for commercial banks, Ms. JIA is familiar with judicial and non-judicial means for the disposal of non-performing assets of commercial banks.

Ms. JIA is a permanent legal advisor to several large-sized state-owned enterprise, central enterprises, and public institutions; therefore, she is familiar with the policies and procedures of the operation and transactions of state-owned enterprises. She can provide consulting, due diligence investigation, plan analysis, and agreement drafting and review concerning operating risks and compliance, investment and financing plans, and shareholding framework of enterprises.

Ms. JIA provides quality legal services for customizing compliance risk management and internal control measures for state-owned enterprises, central enterprises, financial institutions, listed companies, and enterprises.

Books:

365 Questions on the Civil Code and Daily Life, Law Press China

---

Representative performance

Commercial arbitration cases: Successfully handled multiple arbitration cases from diversified perspectives of the lawyer and arbitrator, which was praised by clients.

Dispute over patent contract: Represented an enterprise to successfully initiate retrial detected by the court president after the trial of the first instance, trial of the second instance, retrial, appeal by the procuratorate, and eventually won the case.

Contract dispute: Handled over 1,000 contract disputes in her career, in which Ms. JIA combined mediation and litigation to arrive at a rapid solution and quick recovery of funds for enterprises.

Dispute over financial borrowing agreement: Applied the measures of telephone communication, on-site visit, mediation, litigation, preservation, and execution, identified the root cause of overdue repayment of loans, and implemented specific measures to solve the issues of the lender, which achieved the success rate of over 60% for mediation and rapid recovery of funds.

Dispute over construction contract: Thanks to her experience for over 10 years in construction projects, Ms. JIA can rapidly identify claims, organize materials corresponding to such claims, and prepare lawyer' s opinions in consideration of the characteristics of arbitrators and judgment inclination, hence wining the case supporting our opinions.

Dispute over trade secret: Represented the defendant to argue against the claim of the counterparty that the "trade secret" was not confidential; eventually, the Supreme People' s Court rejected all the claims of the counterparty and supported all our opinions;

Dispute over purchase and sales contract of commodity housing: Represented multiple housing buyers to request delivery of the housing by a top real estate developer in accordance with the contract, and eventually acquired the compensation of the penalty provided in the contract.